

English Summary about VKF

VKF is part of the West Swedish University Cooperation (VUS). The cooperation includes eight universities in the Western Götaland, Halland, Värmland and Jönköping County who works with learning centers in those counties.

VKF primarily focus on distance education issues. One priority is to develop cooperation between universities and learning centers in western Sweden to open up higher education for the citizens of this part of the country regardless of their place of residence.